Dear Keith:

Unless I flew occasionally from New York to Los Angeles and returned, we apparently would have no correspondence whatsoever. For my money, Tom Fisher wouldn't know valor if it walked in and sat down, much less discretion, but he certainly will know struggle. Be that as it may, I am still going to jolt all of you by sticking my head in your office and spending a day or two with you. At least this could have the therapeutic affect of making you happy in retrospect.

Best personal regards.

Sincerely,

Roy B. Loftin
